

LOCAL EVENTS IN TABLOID FORM

Jacob B. Hobbs, 1011 LaSalle ave., last night presented his home to the trustees of Grace church as a refuge for girls.

Coroner's jury declared death of Paul Franzel, 13, 1357 N. Irving Park ave., shot and killed Sunday in his cousin's home, an accident.

Miss Isabelle Turner, 5518 W. Adams, has sued Dr. W. Augustus Pratt, beauty doctor, for $25,000, alleging he destroyed her beauty. She says she was good looking once. But now looks like an English bulldog.

John Stark held to grand jury on charge of robbing guests of Chicago Beach hotel.

Miss Virginia Brooks, West Hammond reformer, has declared herself as candidate for mayor of that town.

David Mawhood, paroled convict; Forrest Knapp, Battle Creek, his brother-in-law, and Edward Allen, a cousin, arrested. Confessed murder of Frederick Wennerstrom, chauffeur, the night of August 30, at Cary, Ill. George Birch, John Lynch and James Menzer implicated in confession. Knapp says he fired fatal shots, and others helped throw Wennerstrom's body in Fox river.

The council last night passed majority report on redistricting with but slight changes.

Also passed mayor's ordinance merging proposed harbor commission with subway commission. Passed ordinance requiring sale of vegetables by weight.

James F. Long arrested in New York and Francis Frick in St. Louis, charged with defrauding the First National Bank of Chicago of $5,000 on a New York draft.

Mrs. M. L. Hedges, 2215 W. Monroe, arrested, charged with refusing to pay taxi bill of $15. Two other women were in machine with her. She refused to tell names.

J. H. Walden, with an office at 501 Plymouth court, robbed of $39 on Clark street car.

Holes are being dug for the erection of poles for street signs in the downtown district.

Mrs. T. D. Carter and son, Thomas, 14, 242 Kenilworth ave., Oak Park, had narrow escape from suffocation in early morning fire. Mother was awakened by flames and rescued son, who was overcome.

Over 300 empty purses found in mail boxes in last three weeks. Had been cast away by pickpockets.

Dr. Robert Sonnenschein, 4744 Prairie ave., run down and probably fatally injured by auto last night. James Rogers, 4401 Michigan ave., driver of machine arrested.

Suggestion for a "heroic" statue on top of the American-Examiner chop suey building: Willie Ranoften Hearst delivering knockout punches to the Turks, with one hand, writing notes to himself from Wu Ting-Fang, with the other hand; kicking the shackles off the Jews in Russia.